HORNER ENGLISH CREAM GOLDEN RETRIEVER SALES AGREEMENT AND GUARANTEE

A. Owner agrees to the following conditions upon purchase:

1. Retriever shall receive proper amounts of food and water as necessary for the health and welfare of Retriever .
2. Retriever shall receive proper medical care by a qualified veterinarian as necessary for the health and welfare of Retriever .
3. Retriever shall be given necessary exercise; either in a fenced area or walked on a leash. Retriever is never to be left tied up or chained outdoors or knowingly allowed to roam unattended.
4. Owner agrees to return Retriever to Breeder if at any time owner cannot keep the Retriever. Owner will not place Retriever in another home without written consent of the breeder. Owner agrees to surrender Retriever's AKC registration and microchip registration signed over to breeder when Retriever is returned to breeder.

_____ (Initial here, see penalty clause)

5. Owner agrees to allow breeder or breeder's representatives to visit the Retriever if at any time it is suspected that the Retriever is being abused or not cared for properly and will allow breeder or breeder's representative to take the Retriever for purposes of finding the Newf a new home.
6. Owner agrees not to allow Retriever or any puppies resulting from a breeding of Retriever to be raffled off, or sold or consigned to pet shops or animal wholesalers.
7. Owner agrees to send in the litter registration with the breeders prefix in the Retriever name to AKC to be transferred to the owner's name, and to register the microchip in the owners name.

B. Breeder agrees to the following:

1. Breeder warrants that owner is buying a purebred Golden Retriever Dog and that they will furnish to the owner the Retriever 's AKC litter registration paper after final payment has been received or upon receipt of registration papers from AKC, whichever occurs later.

2. Breeder guarantees Retriever has had proper care to date and is in good health as it leaves breeder's possession. Owner is given five days from the date of this contract to have the Retriever examined by the veterinarian of the owner's choice to confirm this fact. If, at that time, the health of Retriever is found to be contrary to the above statement, owner shall notify breeder and provide a signed written statement from a licensed veterinarian describing the Retriever 's condition and shall return the Retriever to the breeder within three days of the veterinarian examination. Breeder will either correct the health condition, or replace with another puppy of equal value provided the Retriever is mentally and physically in the same condition as when purchased. Breeder is not responsible if the Retriever contracts a communicable disease after leaving breeders possession.

3. Breeder guarantees the Retriever against any physical congenital defect causing death or making necessary euthanasia of Retriever until two years of age. Upon receipt by breeder of a letter and test results from a reputable veterinarian stating Retriever's condition and that in their opinion this condition is congenital, Retriever will be replaced with a puppy of equal value at breeder's convenience. To be covered by this guarantee the following conditions apply:

a.) Retriever must be owned by the original owner named in this agreement.

b.) Retriever must not have been used for breeding purposes.

c.) In the case of sudden demise of Retriever , breeder must receive a written notice of Retriever's death from owner's veterinarian along with a complete necropsy report indicating the cause of death.

d.) All written reports from the veterinarian must identify the Retriever by their AKC name and MICROCHIP NUMBER.

e.) In the event of suspected severe hip dysplasia, the following procedure must be followed:

1.) Notify Breeder by phone or letter.

2.) Submit x-rays to breeder for evaluation by breeder's veterinarian.

3.) If Retriever must be euthanized, a written notice from the owner's veterinarian stating Retriever condition must be received by breeder prior to euthanasia. Euthanasia shall be performed at the owners expense.

4.) Breeder reserves the right to have the Retriever examined by a veterinarian of the breeders choice to determine to their satisfaction that euthanasia is unavoidable. If both the breeder's veterinarian and the owners veterinarian so agree, euthanasia shall be performed at the owners expense.

5.) The cost of x-rays and examination by the owners veterinarian shall be paid by the owner. The cost of x-rays and examination by the breeder's veterinarian shall be paid by the breeder. All transportation costs of the Retriever for the examinations and x-rays provided for in this section and the above sections shall be paid by the owner.

6.) Any replacement puppy concludes the guarantee arrangement on the original Retriever . The replacement puppy does not carry a guarantee unless specified below.

7.) Since it is impossible to predict the future development of a Retriever puppy, there are no other warranties or guarantees either written or implied. Although breeder will grade the litter for future potential, such grading must be considered an educated guess at best, and the owner must understand that breeding quality or show quality are not guaranteed. The breeder cannot guarantee any Retriever under twenty-four-months of age will OFA certify.

In order for this agreement to be valid both parties must have a signed copy, no AKC or Microchip papers will be supplied until the breeder has a contract signed by the owner.
